

Wine List

Recommended

Here are some wines we particularly recommend for their excellent value for money and easy-to-drink style. The French La Serre wines are lighter bodied with soft elegant varietal character, while the New World wines (Acacia Tree and Paddock) have a bit more flavour and weight.

Whites

			Bottle	175ml	250ml
29	Chardonnay, The Paddock	Australia	£22.00	£5.20	£7.35
	Juicy, sun-packed Australian wine with peach & tropical fruit on the nose. The palate keeps up the exotic theme with refreshing peach and pineapple notes with some crisp lemon acidity on the finish.
17	Sauvignon Blanc, La Serre	South of France	£23.00	£5.35	£7.65
	Lovely, fresh, pure varietal character. Soft and lively palate of melon, peach and pear mixed with tangy, lemony notes. Delicious.
19	Pinot Grigio, Il Conto Vecchio	Italy	£24.00	£5.60	£8.00
	A real crowd pleaser. A subtle fragrant grape with a touch of lemon citrus flavour.
22	Mas Puech Picpoul de Pinet Coteaux du Languedoc	France	£25.50	£5.95	£8.50
	If you like Sauvignon Blanc, try this, wonderfully crisp and fresh, perfect with fish.

Rosés

46	Rosé de Syrah, La Serre	South of France	£23.50	£5.50	£7.85
	Bursting with ripe fresh strawberry and raspberry fruit flavours. A firm structure and grip from the red Syrah grape helps it go just as well with food as on its own.
47	Pinot Grigio Blush, Il Conto Vecchio,	Italy	£24.00	£5.60	£8.00
	Very light pink colour and a touch of sweetness make this a classic Pinot Grigio with a twist. If you want something not too dry and very drinkable, this is for you.

Reds

50	Merlot, La Serre	South of France	£21.00	£4.90	£7.00
	Soft and smooth, easy-drinking, gentle ripe fruit with plum and blackberry flavours.
67	Shiraz, The Paddock	Australia	£22.00	£5.20	£7.35
	Rich fruits on the nose, including plums and red berries that carry through onto the palate with a good ripe tannin structure. Friendly and approachable.
61	Ciconia', Herdade São Miguel	Alentejo, Portugal	£24.50	£5.75	£8.20
	Multi-award winning, this wonderfully mouth-watering red wine shows just what cracking wines modern Portugal can actually produce. Big and rich in style, packed full of ripe cherry and blackberry fruit with hints of chocolate and spice, it is made from a blend of grapes including Shiraz.
73	Pinot Noir, Little Beauty	New Zealand	£37.50	£8.70	£12.50
	An elegant and refined red made by former Cloudy Bay winemaker Eveline Fraser. The wine is packed with aromas of raspberry, black cherry and red fruit compote with some savoury notes and soft, silky tannins.

Crisp, Light and Fresh Whites

These light-bodied dry white wines are perfect examples of uncomplicated wine-making, using modern techniques designed to produce refreshing young approachable wines. They tend to come from cooler climate northern hemisphere countries like France, Italy and Portugal. The emphasis here is on wines with crisp, elegant, subtle, fresh flavours that can be drunk on their own or with salads, seafood, fish, chicken and pasta.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--|-----------------------------|---------------|
| 16 | Vermentino/Sauvignon Blanc, La Croix | South of France | £23.00 |
| | This blend of 70% Vermentino and 30% Sauvignon Blanc has a lovely fresh aromatic character with savoury notes and a long refreshing finish. | | |
| 17 | Sauvignon Blanc, La Serre | South of France | £23.00 |

Aromatic and Fruitier Whites

These wines have stronger aromas on the nose and more flavour and body when tasted. Grapes such as Sauvignon Blanc, Grillo, Chenin Blanc and Riesling can be found here.

28	Chenin Blanc, Acacia Tree	South Africa	£21.00
	Delicious, ripe citrus and peach flavours with a refreshing crisp finish.
29	Chardonnay, The Paddock	Australia	£22.00
	Juicy, sun-packed Australian wine with peach & tropical fruit on the nose. The palate keeps up the exotic theme with refreshing peach and pineapple notes with some crisp lemon acidity on the finish.
30	Grillo, Legato	Sicily, Italy	£23.00
	An indigenous varietal of Sicily, Grillo thrives in the hot, dry climate of the island. Abundantly aromatic with lush notes of apricot, lemons and herbs.
31	Sauvignon Blanc, Valdivieso	Chile	£24.00
	The warmer climate gives this more roundness of style, with subtle hints of ripe tropical fruits. So easy to drink, with a lovely mouth-watering finish.
32	Sauvignon Blanc, Tokomaru	New Zealand	£25.50
	A very well-made Pinot Grigio, this wine has the usual clean, crisp flavours of green apples and citrus fruits
33	Macon Lugny, 'Les Charmes', Cave de Lugny	Burgundy, France	£28.00
	Floral aromas and also peach and pear which continue onto the palate - opulent, rich with nuts and honey, very rounded and soft with a hint of ginger.
34	Peth Wetz Estate Reisling Reeinhessen		£26.00
	A dry riesling with a delicate fragrance of white peaches, apricots and juicy pears.
35	Rimat Saira Albarino		£27.00
	Aromas of white flowers, mango, melon and grapefruit, bursting with flavour.
36	Vouvray Demi-Sec, Clos de Nouys, Paul Buisse	Loire Valley, France	£28.50
	100% Chenin Blanc with beautiful aromas of acacia flowers and white peach with medium sweetness and complex flavours.
37	Sauvignon Blanc, Little Beauty	Marlborough, New Zealand	£30.00
	This elegant Sauvignon made by former Cloudy Bay winemaker Eveline Fraser offers delightful aromas of honeydew melon and lemon grass followed by citrus notes beautifully balanced by flavours of pink grapefruit and basil.
38	Sancerre, 'Tradition', Remy Vincent	Loire Valley, France	£32.50
	The picturesque village of Sancerre is just down river from Pouilly and makes equally good unoaked Sauvignon Blanc. Fuller flavoured yet still elegant with a zingy minerality and freshness.
39	Pouilly Fumé, 'Les Berthier', Claude Michot	Loire Valley, France	£33.00
	Loire Sauvignon Blanc with a touch of gun-flint smokiness from a long established family producer.
40	Chablis 1er Cru 'Montmains', Marronniers	Burgundy, France	£37.50
	A step up from straight Chablis, this Premier Cru from the Montmains vineyard has increased complexity and a little more rich minerality.

Fuller Bodied and Lightly Oaked Whites

Here you will find some of the more serious and complex French dry white wines and ripe full flavoured New World wines. Many winemakers have begun to reduce the amount of oak they use during fermentation, and for maturation, in order to allow the 'terroir' (soil) to really express itself. These wines have more weight in the mouth and a longer finish. They will show more flavour and give more enjoyment when paired with food.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--|-------------------------|---------------|
| 41 | Viognier, 'Single Valley Lot', Valdivieso | Chile | £27.50 |
| | The Viognier grape is gaining popularity. Peach and apricot on the nose, fruit driven, bursting with flavour. | | |
| 42 | Pouilly Fuisse 'Les Reisses', Robert Denogent | Burgundy, France | £46.50 |
| | Pouilly Fuisse, in the Maconais region can produce beautiful full flavoured sumptuous wines. Chardonnay really thrives on these limestone and rich clay soils. | | |
| 43 | Meursault, 'Cuvée Charles Maxime', Latour-Giraud | Burgundy, France | £48.50 |
| | Meursault and Puligny are neighbouring appellations but different in style. Meursault is slightly softer, richer but less lively and fruity than Puligny. This has great concentration and a firm buttery flavour with a long complex finish. Owner Jean-Pierre Latour has 11 hectares of prime Meursault vineyards and his village wine is consistently good. | | |
| 44 | Puligny-Montrachet, 'Les Enseignes', Roux | Burgundy, France | £60.00 |
| | Puligny produces some of the best white wines in Burgundy. The vineyards are perfectly situated and produce an almost unbelievable concentration of purity, succulence and definition in their wines. The Roux brothers have access to some of the best vineyards and have made a wine of great elegance, balance and complexity with long lasting finish. | | |

Refreshing Rosés

Rosé wines should be taken far more seriously these days. The quality of the fruit and winemaking has improved dramatically and there is more choice from around the world. They are the perfect drink on a warm summer's day but can also be enjoyed all year round both with and without food.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--|-----------------------------|---------------|
| 45 | White Zinfindal Rose Blush, The Bulletin | U.S.A. | £23.00 |
| | If you like it sweet-ish, strawberry and lush, you will adore this wine. It's fun in a bottle. | | |
| 46 | Rosé de Syrah, La Serre | South of France | £23.50 |
| | Bursting with ripe fresh strawberry and raspberry fruit flavours. A firm structure and grip from the red Syrah grape helps it go just as well with food as on its own. | | |
| 47 | Pinot Grigio Blush, Il Conto Vecchio, | Italy | £24.00 |
| | Very light pink colour and a touch of sweetness make this a classic Pinot Grigio with a twist. If you want something not too dry and very drinkable, this is for you. | | |
| 48 | Côte de Provence Rosé, Château d'Astros | Provence, France | £27.50 |
| | From the sun-drenched south of France, Provence is considered one of the best areas for rosé. Pale pink-salmon colour, this classic, popular style of French rosé has delicious ripe fruit flavours of soft berry fruits. Ideal as an aperitif. | | |
| 49 | Sancerre Rosé, Andre Neveu 2016 | Loire Valley, France | £31.00 |
| | Pure Pinot Noir that has been aged for a short time in cask to add complexity to the palate. Light and bursting with red berry fruit with nuances of spice and liquorice. Best served slightly chilled but not excessively so. It makes a great wine for lunchtime drinking. | | |

Softer and Lighter Reds

These reds are at the lower end of the alcohol spectrum - around 12.5 to 13.0% - and have less weight and body. They are supple and smooth, but still with good fruit and plenty of juicy acidity. As such they can be really tasty when slightly chilled. Beaujolais especially is delicious from the ice bucket in summer - that's how the French locals drink it.

50	Merlot, La Serre	South of France	£21.00
	Soft and smooth, easy-drinking, gentle ripe fruit with plum and blackberry flavours.
51	Tempranillo Rioja, Castillo Clavijo	Rioja, Spain	£24.50
	Garnet colour with purple glints, the wine has a nose of black cherries. With good intensity and smooth complexity with aromas of ripe red-berries, spices and vanilla, the palate of ripe fruit is soft and creamy.
52	Pinot Noir, Le Versant	South of France	£25.50
	Ruby red colour with an aromatic nose of black cherries and elegant floral notes. This Pinot Noir is silky and well balanced with smooth tannins.
53	Fleurie, Cave de Fleurie	Beaujolais, France	£27.50
	Fleurie is one of the primary villages, or 'Cru' in Beaujolais. More colour and depth while retaining all the juicy freshness you expect.
54	Pinot Noir, Spy Valley	Marlborough, New Zealand	£34.00
	More fruit-driven than its counterpart in Burgundy. Ripe cherries and plums. From one of the larger family owned producers in the famous Marlborough region.

Medium Bodied Reds

These wines have slightly more weight and body, a touch more alcohol and some have had time maturing in oak barrels. You will find Merlot wines here from Chile, South Africa and France, where it is often blended with Cabernet. Pinotage is South Africa's very own red grape variety, made their own by crossing Pinot Noir with Cinsault. Portugal is now making great red wines that go very well with food and deserve to be tried.

55	Tempranillo Merlot Pez de Rio Pez, Do Carinena		£20.00
	Dark cherry, blackcurrant and forest fruits combine with an earthiness and sweet spice.
56	Pinotage, Acacia Tree	South Africa	£21.00
	A soft, easy-drinking red wine, with flavours of blackcurrants, cherries and plums.
57	La Croix Grenache/Merlot	South of France	£22.50
	Dark red fruits and a rustic flavoursome feel with just a hint of spice.
58	Merlot, Valdivieso, Rapel,	Chile	£23.00
	Smooth and juicy with blackberry and damson fruit served up with lashings of mocha coffee and chocolate.
59	Lamberti, Montepulciano d'Abruzzo "Villa dei Fiori"	Italy	£24.00
	Ripe and rounded flavours combining spicy black olives with morello cherries. Made from the Sangiovese grape in the Abruzzo region.
60	Chianti, Ceppaiano	Tuscany, Italy	£24.00
	Vibrant fresh red fruit flavours from the heart of Tuscany. Made from Sangiovese grapes.
61	Ciconia', Herdade São Miguel	Alentejo, Portugal	£24.50
	Multi-award winning, this wonderfully mouth-watering red wine shows just what cracking wines modern Portugal can actually produce. Big and rich in style, packed full of ripe cherry and blackberry fruit with hints of chocolate and spice, it is made from a blend of grapes including Shiraz.
62	Côtes du Rhone, 'Sabounet', Roger Sabon	Rhône Valley, France	£24.50
	Succulent red fruit flavours. A blend of Grenache and Syrah from the southern Rhône valley.
63	Chateau de la Bouyere	Bordeaux, France	£25.50
	Rich and complex with aromas combining ripe black fruits and roasted savoury notes which evolve on the palate with hints of vanilla, spices and a smooth, balanced finish.
64	Rioja Crianza, Dinastia Vivanco	Rioja, Spain	£28.00
	Intense cherry colour with aromas of violets, vanilla and spice. Concentrated red fruit flavours from ripe Tempranillo grapes with well integrated oak flavours from 16 months in French and American oak, and a long elegant finish.
65	Château La Croix Ferrandat	Saint-Emilion, France	£31.50
	Merlot is the dominant grape in St Emilion, on the right bank of the river Dordogne. Intense red fruit flavours, silky tannins and good structure helped by the blending of 10% Cabernet Sauvignon.
66	Petit Corbin-Despagne	Saint-Emilion, France	£33.50
	The second wine from Grand Corbin-Despagne. A blend of Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, showing elegant red and black fruits with fine tannins and a long finish.

Rich and Fuller Bodied Reds

These wines have dark red fruit flavours, firmer tannins and more complexity. They may have a degree or two more alcohol and they will have seen some oak, either during fermentation or maturation or both, and so will have more weight and depth, and therefore should definitely be matched with hearty meat dishes and stronger food flavours.

67 Shiraz, The Paddock	Australia	£22.00
Rich fruits on the nose, including plums and red berries that carry through onto the palate with a good ripe tannin structure. Friendly and approachable.
68 Malbec Seleccion, Argento	Mendoza, Argentina	£25.50
Malbec was born to be grown in Argentina and accompanies all meats, especially beef, extremely well. Dark violet colour with intense aromas. Rich, concentrated fruit flavours and soft tannins.
69 Cabernet Sauvignon, Xanadu Exmoor	Western Australia	£27.00
From Margaret River in Western Australia, packed full of juicy fruits of the forest, cassis and dark chocolate. Full-bodied with a lovely lingering finish.
70 Valpolicella "Villa di Fiori " 2012	Italy	£27.00
Made from the Corvina grape, it is soft and juicy, bursting with bright, crisp red berry fruit and a soft, food friendly palate.
71 Barolo, Angelo Veglio 2013	Italy	£35.00
Made with care by a small grower creating wonderfully fruity and expressive Barolo. Intense and harmonic with good persistence polished tannins and a delicate vanilla aftertaste.
72 Crozes Hermitage, 'Les Jalets', Paul Jaboulet	Rhône Valley, France	£37.00
Attractive bright ruby colour, with a violet hue. Aromas of spicy red berries with a smooth, full flavoured and complex palate. 100% Syrah from the hills around Hermitage, made by this long-established famous producer.
73 Pinot Noir, Little Beauty	New Zealand	£37.50
An elegant and refined red made by former Cloudy Bay winemaker Eveline Fraser. The wine is packed with aromas of raspberry, black cherry and red fruit compote with some savoury notes and soft, silky tannins.
74 La Croix Bonis de Château Phelan Segur	Saint-Estèphe, France	£41.00
Second wine of this resurgent St Estèphe property, this wine is classic St Estèphe with rich, blackcurrant fruit on top of a deeply satisfying tannin structure.
75 Châteauneuf-du-Pâpe, 'Les Olivets' Roger Sabon	Rhône Valley, France	£43.00
80% Grenache with the rest Syrah and Cinsault blended to make attractive notes of kirsch liqueur, sweet roasted herbs, lavender and spice box ensuring a medium to full-bodied, luscious wine.
76 Segla, 2nd Wine of Château Rauzan-Ségla	Margaux, France	£50.00
A little fruit complexity, laced with white pepper. Pure and creamy on the palate.

Dessert Wines

		375ml Bottle	125 ml Glass
77	Botrytis Semillon, 'Eclat', Valdivieso	Cucico, Chile	£22.50	£6.85
	Lovely honeyed grapefruit with some gentle candied lemon on the nose.
